

1914. The Satang Surcharges.

Of each of the three lithographed Surcharges of 1914, there can be distinguished a number of separate printings, the chief points of difference of which are shown below.

First Printing.

Issued about April 1914.

The "n" of Satang is shaped "n" in all values. Ten distinct varieties of the figure 5 occur in both the 5 Satang and 15 Satang values, one in each vertical row.

Second Printing.

Issued about November 1914.

The "n" of Satang is normally shaped. The figures 5 are all alike in each value. The "a" of Satang is small.

Third Printing.

Issued about April 1915.

The "n" of Satang is normally shaped. The figures 5 are all alike and smaller than in the 2nd printing. The "a" of Satang in the 10 Satang on 12 Satang is larger & the "n" of Satang narrower & taller than in the 2nd printing.
